

All Expenses
Paid!

PRIDE

Programs to Increase Diversity among
Individuals Engaged in Health-Related Research

SUMMER TRAINING FOR JUNIOR FACULTY

NHLBI sponsors 6 unique Summer Institute program opportunities for junior faculty with diverse backgrounds. Training can facilitate career advancement by preparing trainees to compete for independent research grants.

SUMMER INSTITUTE PROGRAMS

Behavioral and Sleep Medicine

SUNY Downstate Medical Center, Brooklyn, NY (July 31 — August 13, 2011)

Cardiovascular Genetic Epidemiology

Washington University in St. Louis, St. Louis, MO (July 13 — August 3, 2011)

Diversity in Cardiovascular-Related Research

SUNY Downstate Medical Center, New York, NY (July 11 — July 22, 2011)

FIRST in Comparative Effectiveness Research

Columbia University, New York, NY (July 5 — August 9, 2011)

Functional & Applied Genomics of Blood Disorders

Medical College of Georgia, Augusta, GA (July 11 — July 26, 2011)

Mentoring Researchers in Latino Health Disparities

San Diego State University, San Diego, CA (July 15 — July 30, 2011)

- Two consecutive summers
- Didactic Courses
- Grant writing skills & training
- Hands-on and lab training
- Establish long-term mentoring relationships
- Establish long-term collaborations
- Prioritize research perspectives
- Improve capacity to address health disparities
- Achieve research independence

For Summer Institute Program
APPLICATIONS and Program URLs:
<http://www.biostat.wustl.edu/pridecc/>

National Heart
Lung and Blood Institute
People Science Health