USING THE ARCHIVES

The Dorothy Carpenter Medical Archives encourages the public's interest and inquiries into their holdings for research or general information. Archival records do not circulate. Materials are retrieved from the holding area and brought to the Archive's research area. We reserve the right to close for brief periods of time, so it is recommended that patrons call ahead of time to schedule an appointment.

Drinks, food, or tobacco products are not permitted in the Archives. Laptops and tape recorders may be used, as long as other patrons are not disturbed.

Lucille Cain Hartman Fund for Nursing Archives

NCBH School of Nursing Class of 1932. Seated in the front row on the left is Lucille Cain Hartman. Mrs. Hartman died on February 5, 2005 at age 93.

Lucille Cain Hartman graduated from the NCBH School of Nursing in 1932. After graduating, Lucille had a long career in the nursing field that included private duty nursing, one year in the Army Nurse Corp, assistant director of nurses at NCBH, pediatric clinic nurse, office nurse, director of Red Cross Nursing Services - Winston-Salem Chapter, and medical nurse in the Department of Clinics at Bowman Gray School of Medicine.
-Tar Heel Nurse, July/August, 1983

The Lucille Cain Hartman Fund for Nursing Archives was established in 2005 by Mrs. Hartman and her family to preserve the important history of the NCBH School of Nursing. With the endowment, the Dorothy Carpenter Medical Archives will ensure that the memory of the Nursing School lives on at NCBH. Planned projects include recording oral histories, developing permanent display cases for papers, textiles, and photographs donated by alumni, and conducting special preservation techniques on donated items such as scrapbooks.

If you are interested in supporting the Lucille Cain Hartman Fund for Nursing Archives, please designate your gift to the Hartman Fund and make checks payable to Wake Forest University School of Medicine. Please mail your gift to Office of Development and Alumni Affairs, Medical Center Blvd., Winston-Salem, NC 27157-1021.
