Tuesday, Jan 19, 4:30 p.m, Library Reading Room, Carswell Hall (2nd Floor): Opening Reception. Guest Speaker: Jill Tiefenthaler, Provost and Professor of Economics. "The Economics of Domestic Violence."

Wednesday, Jan 27, 4:30 p.m, Tribble Hall C-216: Mary Dalton, Associate Professor of Communication and Co-Director of Wake Forest's Documentary Film Program. “From Dad to Mom: Transgendered Motherhood in Transamerica”

Tuesday, Feb. 23, 4:30 p.m., Tribble Hall C-216: Jennifer Collins, Professor, Wake Forest University School of Law. “Fathers Who Kill Their Children.”

Thursday, March 25, 4:30 p.m., Tribble Hall C-216: Sherri Lawson Clark, Teacher Scholar Post-Doctoral Fellow, American Ethnic Studies/Women & Gender Studies. "When a Man Needs a Woman: Housing, Power, and Relationships."

Tuesday, April 27, 4:30 p.m, Tribble Hall C-216: Sandya Hewamanne, Assistant Professor, Anthropology. “Surviving City and Village: Suicide Narratives and In-Between Identities among Sri Lanka’s Global Factory Workers.”