

The bar-coded labels that are generated from the LIS must be placed on the tubes with a specific orientation. The first letter of the last name is oriented toward the top of the tube.

Note the placement of the label. The barcode is in position closer to the cap and is in line with the tube.

