

Maya Angelou Center for Health Equity
 Opportunities for Faculty Engagement
 Updated 2-1-16

Research	Faculty and Student Development	Community Engagement
1. Attend monthly journal clubs and lead at least one session	1. Attend MACHE sponsored social events for students and faculty as appropriate	1. Attend MACHE sponsored community engagements events
2. Participate as a co-investigator or collaborator on MACHE sponsored research projects	2. Participate as an attendee or lecturer in HERO fellowship	2. Speak about health equity/disparities topic to community audiences
3. Initiate submission of health disparities research grants in collaboration with MACHE faculty	3. Serve as a mentor/preceptor for MACHE interns, medical students and fellows	3. Provide articles on health disparities topics for local media (e.g., Winston-Salem Chronicle)
4. Participate as an attendee or as a speaker in MACHE sponsored Research Skills seminars	4. Serve as an informal or formal mentor for under-represented minority faculty	4. Provide opportunities for students/interns for involvement in community engagement
5. Attend MACHE sponsored research lectures	5. Attend/serve as a judge for MACHE Bowl	5. Serve as a member of MACHE sponsored community/campus committees
6. Attend/serve as a speaker for MACHE sponsored research retreats	6. Provide clinical observation experiences for under-represented students
7. Submit applications for MACHE sponsored pilot grants
8. Participate as a co-author for MACHE sponsored research articles/editorials

For more information, please visit our website at www.wakehealth.edu/MACHE