

Thank You

The all-volunteer student and faculty staff of the Wake Forest Journal of Science & Medicine would like to extend our heartfelt thanks to the following for providing the funding which has allowed us to print physical copies of this issue of the journal:

Department of Surgery

Department of Internal Medicine

Department of Pediatrics

Department of Family Medicine

Department of Psychiatry

Undergraduate Medical Education Offices of Academic Affairs, Student Affairs and Admissions

Office of Development and Alumni Affairs

The Class of 58 Fund

The Maya Angelou Center for Health Equality (MACHE)

From everyone at the Wake Forest Journal of Science & Medicine —

Thank You!

The Wake Forest Journal of Science & Medicine project greatly benefits from funding support.

If your department would like to assist in supporting this endeavor, please email wfjasm@wakehealth.edu.