Grand Rounds Listing

As a public service the Wake Forest Journal of Science & Medicine collects and publicizes information on upcoming Grand Rounds being held by different departments. This listing is available on the journal website, www.WakeHealth.edu/WFJSM, and is posted on message boards around the hospital campus. Due to the timeline of print publication, it is not possible to include a currently relevant grand rounds list in physical copies of the journal.

If you would like your department's upcoming Grand Rounds included in the listing or if you would like a copy of the listing sent to you or to someone in your department, please email wfjasm@wakehealth.edu with the phrase 'Grand Rounds Listing' in the subject line.

Clinical Reviews — Accepting Topic Submissions

A number of students have expressed interest in learning the art of writing clinical reviews. If you are an established researcher or clinician with an idea for a clinical review article, please email reviews@wakehealth.edu. We will endeavor to connect you with a student interested in writing the article with you.
